Nancy Wynne Talks of the Debut of Miss Mary Carroll Rolin in November-She Tells of the Ball Planned in Cape May for September 1

VERY attractive debutante of the coming season will be Mary Carroll Rolin. You know she is the daughter of Bill Rolin and the very picturesque and attractive Mrs. Rolin, who was Miss Plumb, a sister of Fayette Plumb. The Rolins live out at Strafford in a most attractive place since moving from Haverford, where for a number of years they lived in that beautiful old yellow house on Lancaster pike opposite, or rather almost opposite, the Haverford Grammar School. Mary Carroll is the eldest of their very attrac ive children and bids fair to have a very good time, for she is very popular with the boys and girls. And, too, every one likes Mr. and Mrs. Rolin. Unless the date has been changed since I saw Mrs. Rolin a few days ago they have settled on No-vember 3 for the ten, and there is to be a dinner-mance afterward for the receiving party and, of course, a number of men.

The Rolins spend their summer at Spring Lake, on the Jersey Coast, where they have a most delightful place.

EVERY one is muchly excited down at Cape May about the "Charity Ball." And you can't blame them, for it's going to be A-No. 1, big, great and enormous function. You see, there have been fairs and bridge parties and number of small denores during the other summers for various benefits, but never before an honest-to-goodness ball, with a cabaret, in which lots of talented girls and men from here will take part. For instance, the chorus of "Quaker Maids," headed by Peggy Thayer, who danced here in Mrs. Thomas are being congerned and the control of the prohibition amendment. In the statement the numssioner is quoted as saying "there never was greater necessity for all law abiding forces to get together, and candidates who have come out wholly on the side of law and order should have the fullest-support at the polls."

Explaining that he is a candidate for e-election. Mr. Hill asserted in the letter that "Prohibition Commissioner Haynes is using money derived from the season, as it were, though of course, the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the season, as it were, though of course, the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, will be done. The ball is to close the guests of Mr. Heppard's parents, who in accordance with our sworn duty, are advocating a modification of the absurd and lots of people stay until after Labor Day, and later, too, for that matter. The ball is to be given in the Lafayette Hotel, and Mrs. Charles Comley Norris is chairman of the whole affair. The cabaret is to be taken care of by Mrs. Joe Rollins, Mrs. Hartison Carar Jr. and Debrah Seal. care of by Mrs. Joe Rollins, Mrs. Harrison Caner, Jr., and Deborah Seal.
And Florence Hopkinson is going over from Bay Head to tell fortunes. In fact.
I hear that quite a number of people from Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Wilmington and New York, as well as O. O.
D. C. will go down for the event. It's to be a costume affair, you know, and to be a costume affair, you know, and that in itself secures much interest. that in itself secures much interest. It's to be held on Friday night, September 1; and, incidentally, it's for the benefit of the Episcopal Church of the Advent. You know Dr. Paul Sturtevant Howe, who married Marguerite Adams, of this city, is rector of that little church, which is attended by many of the fashionable residents of the Adams, and the residents of the fashionable residents of Cape May, whose pride it is to do something each year for its support. The committee has got together a wonderful bunch of names for patronesses. derful bunch of names for patronesses, and, I understand, the patronesses are not only giving their names, but are really supporting the affair by working hard to make it a success.

A unique feature is the selling of tags of admission instead of tiekets.

House Votes to Commit Admin-Istration Measure After Acrimonious Debate

LONG DELAY IS FORECAST

Washington, Aug. 22.—After any hour's discussion the Administration Tariff Bill was sent to conference today by the House. Speaker Gillett named five members of the Ways and Means Committee as the House managers. Chairman Fordney and Representatives Green, of Iowa, and Longworth, of Ohio, Republicans, and Garner, of Texas, and Coilier, of Mississippi, Democrats.

These managers with an equal number from the Senate will be faced with the task of composing 2436 differences between the House and Senate, the reprint of the bill showing that the Senate made that number of amendments to the original House measure. This was 349 more changes than were made by the Senate Finance Committee before it reported the bill.

Much of the debate centered around the question of when the bill would come out of conference. Representatives Garner and Pou, of North Carolina, and other Democrats predicted it would not be made ready for final action until after the November elections. They charged that the Republicans did not want to go before their constituents facing a defense of it.

constituents facing a defense of it.

Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, said that necessarily there would have to be some modifications in conference,
but he expressed the hope that the bill
would be reported back "at no distant date."

Chairman Campbell, of the Rules Committee, declined to prophesy, but charged that the Democratic campaign managers had arranged a "very cunning campaign" to be launched the day after enactment of the bill. He asserted that prices were to be advanced on all that prices were to be advanced on all articles affected by the measure, charg-
